

Elevator Song

Oh the city is great, the city is grand
There are many tall buildings on a tiny piece of land

We lived way up on the 57th floor
And that's what we do when we step out the door

We take the elevator up, take the elevator down
Take the elevator up, take the elevator down
Take the elevator up, take the elevator down
And then we turn around