

ART ACTIVITY

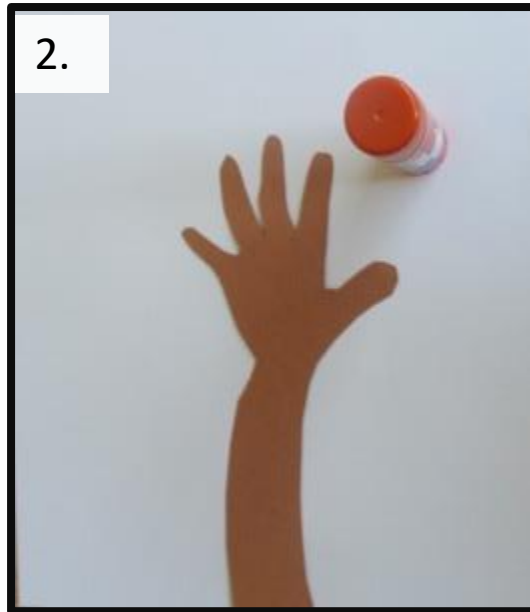

Handprint Autumn Tree Craft

By Yasuko, Edited by Eunice

Steps:

1. Trace the child's hand, wrist and forearm on brown paper to make it look like a tree trunk.

2. Cut out the handprint and glue it onto the white paper.

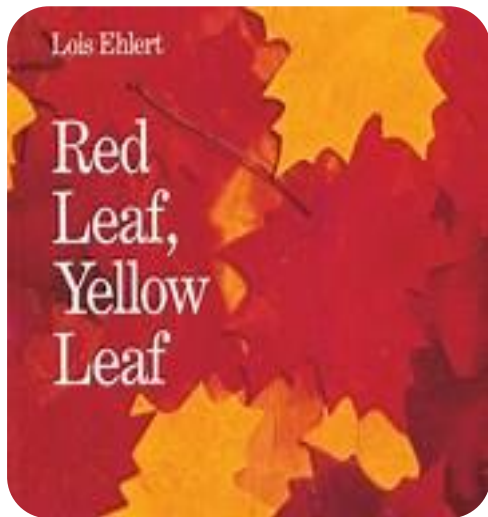

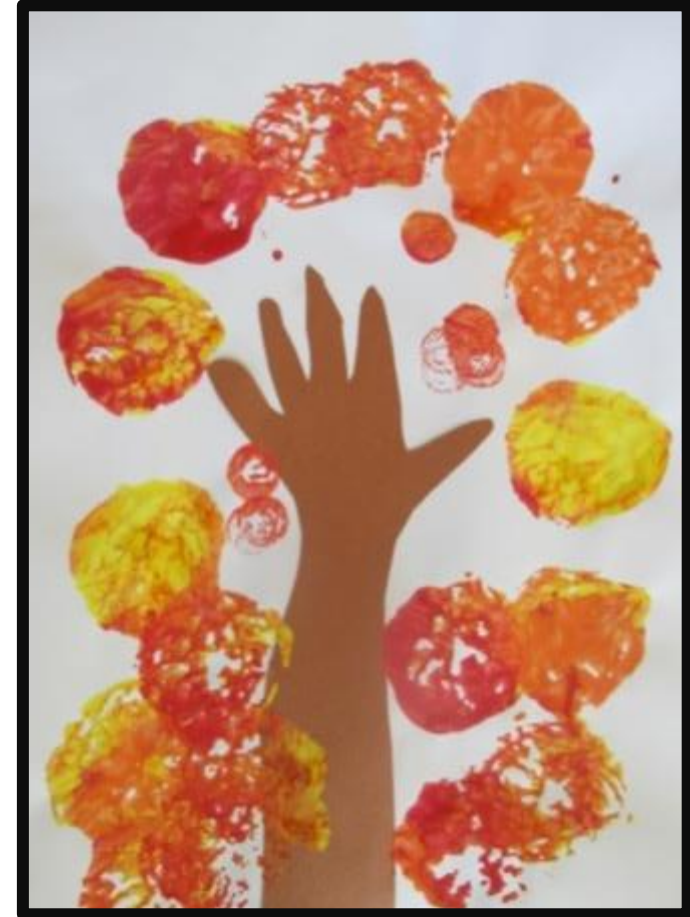

3. Dip the sponges/fingers into the paint and use them to print leaves around the tree. Alternatively, use leaves dipped in paint to create leaf prints.

What you need:

- White paper
- Brown Paper
- Red, Orange and Yellow Paint
- Sponges (Any kinds)
- Scissors
- Glue

❑ You can also try:

Reading a story together: Red Leaf, Yellow Leaf by Lois Ehlert

Talk with your child about the autumn leaves. What colours are they? What do they look like? How are they similar, and how are they different?