

Job Posting- Clinical Counsellor contract position, 4 to 6 hours/weekly

Burnaby Family Life has provided quality care to community members for over 50 years and we want you to join our team! Our organization promotes the vision of a healthy and inclusive community where individuals and families can thrive.

We are looking for a clinical counsellor to join our new Manifest Project team and work with youth males in a group setting. The youths would gain insight on an array of topics such as patriarchy, egalitarian power structure and healthy communication with others. The outcome of this program is to prepare the male youths for healthier outlook, so they have better relationship with self and others.

WHY BURNABY FAMILY LIFE?

At Burnaby Family Life, we pride ourselves on our flexibility and responsiveness to the needs of the community. OUR VALUES guide us in our everyday work, helping us to make a difference in our community.

Collaboration
Leadership
Advocacy
Respect and Inclusion
Professionalism
Learning
Empowerment

WHAT THIS ROLE WILL DO:

Provide weekly session, deliver relevant materials during program facilitation, gather data for program outcome, write reports on program delivery:

1. Identifies and assesses participants perspective on intimate partner violence, masculinity, gender identity and active bystander.
2. Complete Clinical notes on group facilitation, must summarize every session and reflect progress toward program goals and outcome.
3. Ensures the group members complete quantitative measures and surveys at the beginning and end of service delivery.

4. Conduct assessment and screening via phone, virtually or in person on youth males who are interested in being participants in the group facilitation.
5. Engage in group supervision/consultation sessions with coordinator on a as needed basis to discuss and debrief on group dynamic.
6. Liaison with community professionals on gender-based violence program and male support programs and any other resources requested by the group participants.
7. Provide debriefing appointments for group member or members to address mediation, conflict resolution, general inquiry they may have regarding the group materials.
8. Discuss and debrief with members regarding guidelines of no shows, cancellations, or non-continuation of being an active participant.
9. Collaborates with the facilitator in conducting groups which may require joint preparation and/or support.

WHAT WE VALUE IN A CANDIDATE:

1. Demonstrated knowledge and skills using relevant formal counselling and experiential approaches by means of a feminist perspective.
2. Excellent interpersonal behaviour and written and verbal communication skills.
3. Ability to work independently and within a team culture with good organization, time and self-management skills.
4. Ability to operate computer/word processing programs and communicate by email, PowerPoint.
5. Knowledge of group processes and/or facilitation techniques.
6. Understand the implications of intersectionality on various races, cultures, socio-economic status.
7. Knowledge of community resources

Since 1971, Burnaby Family Life has been offering quality community social services in Burnaby and in neighboring communities working every day to make this a more inclusive, welcoming, and safe community for all. www.burnabyfamilylife.org

Please forward your resume to: Keerti Nand
Email: Knand@burnabyfamilylife.org
Closing date: April 15, 2024
Starting Date: April 24th, 2024
Contracted Hours: 4 hours weekly, +2 hours meetings, consultations

- Saturdays – (4 hours)
- Flexibility required to be available for team debriefings.

Compensation: $50 per hour

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.