

Volunteer Opportunity- Marketing for Good

Are you looking to be part of an organization with a vision of a healthy and inclusive community where individuals and families can thrive? Burnaby Family Life has been changing lives for over 50 years and we want you to join our volunteer team!

Description: The Marketing for Good Volunteer will work together with our communications team to help organize learning activity resources that were developed by our early childhood educators to promote learning at home. In this role you will help to design and prepare the final learning aids that will live within our resources page of website.

Location and hours:

- 2101 Holdom Avenue / remote independently
- Weekdays- mornings or afternoons

Is this role for you?

What you will do:

- Graphic design and production of materials for weekly activities that support learning and healthy development at home for children between two and five years of age.
- Help add the final activities to website for families to have access in an easy user-friendly way.

Are you:

- Passionate about marketing and communications work that supports the local community.
- Proficient in the use of Canva and Microsoft Office software (Word, Excel, PowerPoint).
- Reliable, energetic, creative, and dedicated.

Since 1971, Burnaby Family Life has been offering quality community social services in Burnaby and in neighboring communities working every day to make this a more inclusive, welcoming, and safe community for all. www.burnabyfamilylife.org
